Passau Summer School for Applied Ethics

History & Memory: Ethical Dimensions

4. – 8.8.2025

Call for Applications

Are you passionate about exploring complex ethical questions surrounding historical memory and justice? Do you want to engage in thought-provoking discussions with international experts and creatively shape your perspectives on pressing ethical issues? Then apply now to join the Passau Summer School for Applied Ethics (PASSAE)!

This year, PASSAE focuses on the theme of responsible engagement with historical memory. Together, we will delve into profound ethical questions, such as: Is engaging with history a moral duty? What are the duties of anamnestic justice, and what do they entail? How can we do justice to historical injustice? What role do digital technologies play in shaping our engagement with history? Participants will not only learn from leading philosophical experts but will also have the opportunity to work creatively in interdisciplinary teams and communicate their insights to a broader audience. Beyond inspiring academic work, you'll also get to enjoy the charming city of Passau, known for its rich cultural heritage and stunning natural surroundings.

Application Details:

Interested in becoming part of PASSAE? Here's how to apply: Submit a letter of motivation (max. 350 words) outlining your interest in the topic and what you hope to gain from the experience (deadline: 15 February 2025): <https://passae.uni-passau.de>

Please note that, upon acceptance, there will be a participation fee of 50€.
